Band Bio

ROJAH DARE [ Rō-zhä Dâir ] (pronounced in the most obnoxious faux-French accent you can muster) is the power pop/garage punk/hard alternative/emo? brainchild of vocalist and multi-instrumentalist J Lewis. Born from the doldrums of the pandemic, the project began as a sanity-preserving survival tactic but quickly mutated into a musical melting machine that demanded to be heard. Named by a Star Wars random character generator and inspired by the minimalist member approach of Thrones, HIRS, and Atom and His Package, ROJAH DARE ignores genre boundaries in favor of pop catchiness and punk catharsis.
